THINK WEEK AT THE FLANDRIEN HOTEL

Hosts

Jamie Anderson is Professor of Leadership & Strategy at Antwerp Management School, and Visiting Professor at INSEAD. Jamie has been named as a “management guru” in the Financial Times, and has also been included on a list of the world’s “top 25 management thinkers” by the journal Business Strategy Review. A competitive Masters cyclist, Jamie is currently European Champion in the Time Trial discipline.

Bernard Moerman is Associate Lecturer in Leadership at Antwerp Management School, an executive coach, two-time TED Speaker and consultant in the field of Organizational Change and Lifelong Learning. Prior to shifting his focus to the corporate sector, he spent more than two decades as a talent manager, coach, mentor and Team Director in the world of elite-level cycling.

“Jamie and Bernard bring a depth of experience that is unique in the world, combining leadership, coaching skills and academic credibility with a deep passion for cycling.”

Michael Rogers, Three Time World Champion & Innovation Manager UCI

Outcomes

- When you return from your Think Week, you will have had an opportunity to work through your doubts about your professional abilities and the work you do.
- You will have reconnected with your health & wellbeing and had time to truly unwind.
- You will have a sense of optimism and embrace a can-do attitude.
- You will know where to focus your energies.
- You will have a roadmap that enables you to confidently carry out your vision for a better life or a better world.
- And you will be on track towards achieving your personal and professional goals.

Location

Think Weeks are held at the Flandrien Hotel which is located in Brakel in the heart of the region of the Tour of Flanders.

The hotel is in easy reach of cobbled roads and iconic climbs such as De Muur, Oude Kwaremont, Bosberg, Paterberg and Koppenberg.

The region is also a paradise for hikers and runners.
